

New! Global Art Project for Peace DVD!

Contains two KUAT-TV programs featuring the Global Art Project — the recent 2006 interview with Katherine Josten as well as the 1999 feature on the Global Art Project Exhibition at the Tucson Museum of Art.

This 15-minute video is the PERFECT way to introduce the Project to groups or classes — showing new images of participant art, photos of participants, excerpts from participant letters, and examples of paper hands for peace created for the Project’s “Let’s All Join Hands” program.

You might also like to order some of our postcard books (see www.globalartproject.org) to sell when you show the DVD. All proceeds from these sales will be used to fund the Exchange. Thank you!
